Expecting a Baby

Obligations you need to secure after childbirth

- ✓ Collect papers from the hospital that are important for obtaining a birth certificate.
- ✓ Go to the registry office to announce the birth of Anna and receive a birth certificate.
- ✓ Parents need to choose a health insurance company and enrol the child.
- ✓ They should send the hospital discharge report to the chosen paediatrician on the first working day after the hospital discharge.
- ✓ Register the child for permanent residence (online)
- ✓ Visit Social Insurance Agency to secure maternity leave allowance
- ✓ Visit Labour Office and Office for Social Affairs and Family to secure various forms of allowances, some of them may be obtained online (childbirth allowance, allowance for parents who had three or more children born at the same time or who have had twins repeatedly within two years, child benefits, parental allowance for own/custodial child, childcare allowance)
- ✓ Send childbirth announcement to the employer(s).
- ✓ Report the notification of the fee obligation for municipal waste.
